EXHIBIT A

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION ARTS AND SCIENCES, INC.
ET AL.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MULTIMEDIA SYSTEM DESIGN, INC.,

Defendant

Case No.: 1:20-cv-07269-VEC-OTW

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Jason Goodman ("Goodman"), CEO and sole owner of Defendant Multimedia System Design, Inc, respectfully moves this Court for an extension of time to obtain new counsel. This court has allowed nonparty D. George Sweigert to engage in brazen violations of 18 U.S. Code § 2261A(2)(A) and (B) including the extraordinary extrajudicial harassment, cyberstalking and intimidation of Jonathan Snyder and his infant child as cited in his withdrawal (See ECF No. 100 and 101). (EXHIBIT A) By doing nothing to rein in this criminal behavior, the Court has allowed Sweigert to create an environment in which it is extraordinarily difficult for Defendant to obtain new counsel. Multiple attorneys directly stated that the threats including those against Snyder and his child were the reason they declined representing Defendant. As a result, Defendant requires and respectfully requests an additional 90 days to continue searching for a new attorney. The "Crony Graphic" has already been voluntarily removed from the internet entirely to the best of Defendant's knowledge as a demonstration of good faith. This delay will not prejudice any of the Plaintiff's rights or continue any alleged damage.

Goodman hereby requests that the Court enter an Order

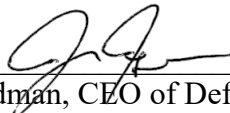

(1) granting a Motion for an Extension of Time;

(2) providing an extension of time, not less than 90 days from the granting of the order for Defendant to retain new counsel; and

(3) awarding Defendant such further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

Signed this 23th day of November 2021

Respectfully submitted,

Jason Goodman, CEO of Defendant Multimedia System Design, Inc.

Techdirt Is Fighting A New Lawsuit

Techdirt

from the slapp-suits dept

Thu, Jul 22nd 2021 10:44am — Mike Masnick

Techdirt was recently sued in Florida by Larry Klayman for an article that we published concerning the US Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit suspending his license for 90 days. We strongly believe that this case is entirely without merit, and is a clear attempt to silence opinion and criticism via the court system.

Last week, we asked the court to dismiss the lawsuit under Florida's anti-SLAPP law, and we hope that the court will agree. Beyond that, while litigation is still ongoing, we'll have no further comment, other than to note our continued advocacy for the adoption of more state anti-SLAPP laws and a strong federal anti-SLAPP law.

adopted the magistrate's report and recommendation. Additionally, in their last motion they randomly attacked it of "defendant's" "baseless" "Story" "latter" "completely" "made the record. See ECF Nos. [128-1]; [128-2] (reply to response to reconsideration). To address the attack on the "one" "relationship" during divorce proceedings was not to "have" "on more than one occasion the ... act [sic] in a grossly inappropriately [sic] manner with the children. His conduct may not have been sexual in the sense that he intended to or did derive any sexual pleasure from it or that he intended that the children would. That, however, does not mean that he didn't engage in those acts or that his behavior was proper." Klayman v. City Pages, 650 Fed. Appx. 744, 746

(11th Cir. 2016) (citing records from Klayman's 2009 divorce hearing regarding Klayman's behavior towards his own children). See Exhibit -- 2. Plaintiffs' failure to consider how placing

His conduct may not have been sexual in the sense that he intended to or did derive any sexual pleasure from it or that he intended that the children would. That, however, does not mean that he didn't engage in those acts or that his behavior was proper.

And for all his protestations of innocence ... he repeatedly invoked his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination ... [Because this is a civil proceeding,] the Court may draw an adverse inference from a party's decision not to respond to legitimate questions....

Jason Goodman is seeking to have a "public corruption" case investigated. Goodman says that NATO hater George Webb schemed with the Clerk of the Court. Some observers remark that it appeared as a "kiss of death" document, apparently meaning talk of possible political trauma, aka industrial accident.

JOHN H. SNYDER, an attorney licensed to practice in the State of New York and this Court, states as follows in support of his motion for leave to withdraw as counsel of record in the above-captioned matter, which is made pursuant to SDNY Local Rule 1.4, as well as Rule 1.7 and 1.16 of the N.Y. Rules of Professional Conduct. I also respectfully request a 90-day adjournment of the discovery sanctions hearing scheduled for August 16, 2021, so as to give Mr. Goodman and his company time to find new counsel.

1. Your Declarant has practiced in this Court for 16 years, including volunteering significant time as an unpaid court-appointed mediator for the Southern District. I have always represented my clients with loyalty and zeal, advancing my client's lawful objectives to the best of my ability. Nor have I shied away from representing underdogs and clients with unpopular opinions. As a young lawyer, I learned that our system of justice depends on lawyers being willing to take on hard cases and unpopular clients.

2. With considerable regret, I must respectfully ask the Court for leave to withdraw from the representation of Jason Goodman and his company, Multimedia System Design, Inc.

Simply put, Mr. Goodman’s journalism appears to have attracted opposition, including but not limited to Mr. Sweigert, whose antipathy toward Mr. Goodman is beyond anything I have experienced in nearly two decades as a New York litigator.

3. The Court is aware of David Sweigert, the pro se plaintiff in Sweigert v. Goodman. For many months, Mr. Sweigert has been making negative posts about me on his blog, which of course I ignored. Then, in May 2021, Sweigert started sending emails to dozens of recipients (including the New York Attorney General), purporting to make a bar complaint against me. Again, I ignored Mr. Sweigert. However, a couple weeks ago, Mr. Sweigert crossed the line by posting a photograph of my young child. In light of the surrounding circumstances, I construe this as either a threat or a warning.

4. Since the time Mr. Sweigert posted a photo of my child, I have made inquiries and formed the opinion that Mr. Sweigert (and others who share antipathy toward Mr. Goodman) are not people I want to fight with. I cannot determine what motivates them, but I have no reason to assume they are harmless.

5. In moving to withdraw, I intend no criticism of Mr. Goodman or his journalistic pursuits. Mr. Goodman is a cordial and cooperative client who works extremely hard on his craft. Nevertheless, Mr. Goodman’s work seems to have attracted opposition that is outside of my comfort zone.

6. Rule 1.16 of the N.Y. Rules of Professional Conduct makes withdrawal mandatory when “the lawyer knows or reasonably should know that the representation will result in a violation of these Rules or of law. . . .”

7. Under Rule 1.7 of the N.Y. Rules of Professional Conduct, “a lawyer shall not represent a client if a reasonable lawyer would conclude that . . . there is a significant risk that the lawyer's professional judgment on behalf of a client will be adversely affected by the lawyer's own financial, business, property or other personal interests.”

8. In this instance, my professional judgment is 100% impaired. I have agonized over this decision, but at the end of the day, I cannot zealously represent Mr. Goodman's interests if I am worried about my family. For that reason, I consider my withdrawal to be mandatory.

9. It will be a challenge for Mr. Goodman to find new counsel. For that reason, I respectfully request that the pending August 16, 2021 discovery sanctions hearing be adjourned for at least 90 days in order to give Mr. Goodman and his company time to retain new counsel.

10. Mr. Goodman has authorized me to advise the Court that he consents to my withdrawal. I have assured Mr. Goodman that I will cooperate fully in transitioning the file. I further confirm that Mr. Goodman has no further financial obligation to my firm.

11. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on August 13, 2021.

JOHN H. SNYDER
